EXPERTISE

Travel deeper into the past

For over 40 years, Andante, part of Specialist Journeys, has been creating journeys for those who want to understand the world, not simply see it.

Our tours are shaped by a belief that travel is at its most rewarding when it is informed, thoughtful and experienced with others who share your curiosity. From world-famous sites to places rarely visited, we explore the layers of history that have shaped the story of humanity – guided by experts who bridge the gap between the past and the present.

Whether standing in the shadow of iconic temples, tracing the rise and fall of empires or uncovering the context behind fascinating treasures in a museum, our aim is simple: to help you see more, understand more and return home with a deeper perspective.

Through expert storytelling, new discoveries and unique access, an Andante tour is as close to time travelling as you can get. Depart in 2027, but let us take you on a journey through millennia.

Thoughtfully designed, expertly led

Our customers have a genuine curiosity about the past and a desire to understand the stories, people and places that have shaped it. Travelling with Andante is deliberately informal and thoughtfully designed to feel collaborative rather than prescriptive. There is no hierarchy, no sense of being ushered from one stop to the next. Instead, you'll find yourself among like minded people, exploring together at a natural pace, asking questions, exchanging ideas and sharing discoveries along the way.

This balance between expert guidance and relaxed exploration creates an easy, open atmosphere where conversation flows naturally. With groups of no more than 18 travellers, we can spend the right amount of time at each site, explore more thoughtfully and access places often beyond the reach of larger groups – creating deeper insight and a more personal connection to each destination.

Travelling solo? Our tours are built with you in mind, shaped around community and connection, and so perfect for those travelling alone or in small groups exploring together. Each journey is thoughtfully designed to feel welcoming and inclusive, where shared experiences turn strangers into companions. What's more, we offer double/twin rooms (for sole use) as standard, so you'll enjoy a spacious area. As you look through, you'll find over 200 no-single-supplement places, ready and waiting in this brochure.

Travel with the best

Small groups

With a maximum group size of 18, you'll go where bigger groups can't and there is time and space to ask questions and explore without compromise.

Designed for deeper discovery

Unhurried journeys. Behind-the-scenes access. Meaningful conversations. Every journey is a story well-told.

Seamless, truly personal travel

From perfectly located hotels to getting around on tour – your transport, meals, gratuities and wine with dinner on most tours are taken care of. With dedicated support throughout you can focus entirely on your experience.

A pace & level of activity that suits you best

All Andante tours involve a degree of walking, often on uneven terrain, inclines and steps. We travel at a measured pace, with time to pause and reflect, but a reasonable level of mobility is important to enjoy the experience in full.

Physical demands vary between tours, from relaxed museum visits to more challenging historic sites and landscapes. To help you choose, each tour is graded according to activity level to ensure you select the journey that best suits your preferences and comfort.

Level 1 | Easy ●○○

Suitable for most people in good health, with walking on well-maintained paths at low altitude. Expect some inclines, steps and shorter travel distances.

Level 2 | Moderate ●●○

Suitable for those with a reasonable level of fitness, including walking on varied terrain with some steep inclines and potentially longer days.

Level 3 | Active ●●●

Suitable for those with a good level of fitness, with walks potentially involving difficult terrain, high altitudes and long days.

Guided by those who know it best

At the heart of every Andante journey is your expert Guide Lecturer

A travelling companion who not only understands the subject in depth but knows how to bring it vividly to life. Through their knowledge, the past becomes something tangible: a story that unfolds around you rather than something confined to a page.

They are there throughout your journey, to explain, discuss, answer questions and often to share perspectives that go beyond the expected.

It is this level of insight that transforms a visit into an experience and a place into a fascinating story. You'll also be accompanied by a Tour Manager to make sure everything is taken care of and often a Local Specialised Guide too.

Dr Jamie Sewell

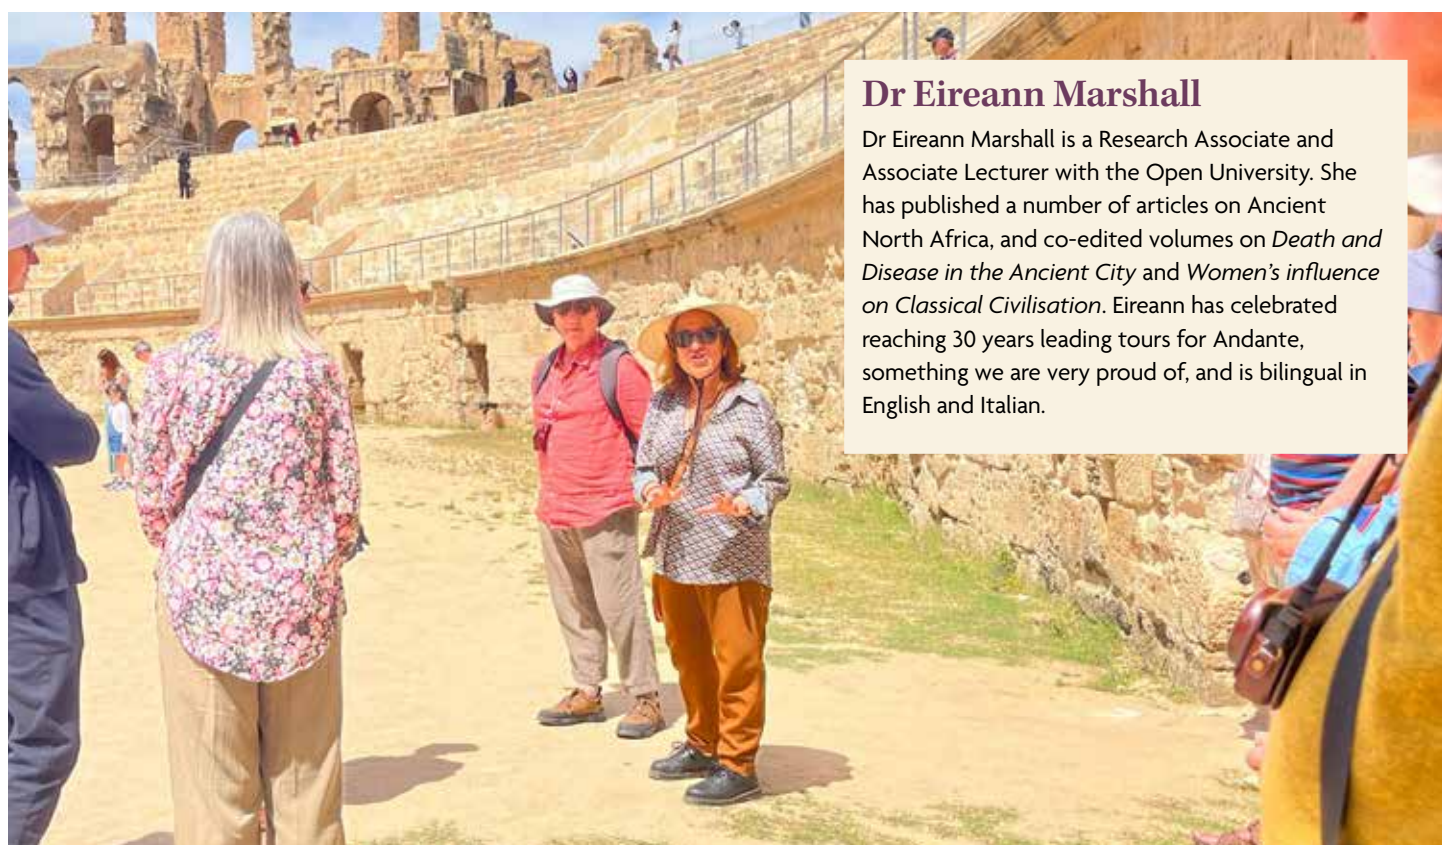

Dr Jamie Sewell has fifteen years' experience supervising excavations in Britain, Germany, Romania and Italy, including Pompeii. He has authored books and articles on the archaeology of towns in Hellenistic Italy and in the broader Mediterranean region. His ongoing research is focussed on how and why larger settlements in Italy transformed as a result of the Roman conquest of the peninsula. Jamie has lectured at Durham University in the UK, Humboldt University in Berlin, and has more than a decade's worth of experience working as a guide.

John Shepherd

A specialist in the study of ancient glass, John has worked extensively in the field in Europe as an archaeologist, including France, Italy and Bulgaria. Much of John's career has been focused upon Roman provincial archaeology, working at the Museum of London for over 20 years. He published Professor W F Grimes's post war excavations on the London Temple of Mithras and the Cripplegate Roman Fort and also established the Museum's Archaeological Archive and Research Centre. He left the Museum in 2004 to work more closely with developing the use of museum archaeological collections in universities and schools, as well as teaching at the Highgate Literary and Scientific Institute on various aspects of European archaeology.

Dr Eireann Marshall

Dr Eireann Marshall is a Research Associate and Associate Lecturer with the Open University. She has published a number of articles on Ancient North Africa, and co-edited volumes on Death and Disease in the Ancient City and Women's influence on Classical Civilisation. Eireann has celebrated reaching 30 years leading tours for Andante, something we are very proud of, and is bilingual in English and Italian.

New tours for 2027

The archaeological world is waiting

2025 saw the first pharaonic tomb discovered since Tutankhamun's – in Egypt's Valley of the Kings. A Dionysian frieze was unearthed at Pompeii. A Neolithic amphitheatre emerged at Karahantepe in southern Türkiye. The ancient world has never felt more alive – and our 2027 programme places you at the heart of it. Our new tours are thoughtfully planned to make the most of recent archaeological discoveries, allowing you to be among the first to visit these sites.

Alongside our returning favourites, we are pleased to present a selection of brand-new journeys. Whether your interests lie in Portuguese rock art, awe-inspiring gems of Bohemia, the glory days of the Roman Empire (and its crumbling downfall) or Neolithic sites on sun-soaked islands, these new tours set out to capture the imagination – providing the context in which fascinating treasures sit and why they matter. Those seeking far-flung adventure won't be disappointed with our Japanese and Chilean offerings, while there are several tours with a Roman and Egyptian focus in celebration of the enduring legacies of these great civilisations. Here is a focus on just some of our new tours for 2027. You will find all our new tours on pages 12 to 27.

Milan & Pavia

Mighty Milan was, for a crucial century, the true seat of imperial power, the place where emperors chose to govern, build and ultimately be buried, as the eternal city itself became too distant to hold the reins of a crumbling world. On this tour, we trace the extraordinary legacy of that late imperial moment and continue the story in Pavia, once the seat of a Germanic dynasty that had swept away the last vestiges of Roman rule in the north. See page 14 for more details.

In the news

Archaeologists recently uncovered a 2,000-year-old Roman funerary monument near the Appian Way, reanimating debate over elite identity in late imperial culture – precisely the world this tour inhabits.

Turkey: From the Black Sea to Mesopotamia

This off-the-beaten-track exploration takes us from the Black Sea coast deep into the Armenian Highlands, crossing high mountain passes and following stretches of the ancient Silk Road. Eastern Turkey receives a fraction of the attention lavished on the classical sites of the Aegean coast, yet its historical significance is just as important. For those with a serious interest in history, architecture and the layered complexity of human civilisation, it offers an experience that is, quite simply, without parallel. See page 16 for more details.

In the news

A 10,000-year-old Epipaleolithic site was announced in southeastern Türkiye in 2026, offering fresh evidence of the deep human story this tour traces across two coasts and a river valley.

Egypt - Land of the Pharaohs

In a country where adjectives are insufficient to describe its monuments and experiences, there is no substitute for witnessing the glittering treasures of Tutankhamun's tomb, the quiet intrigue of the hypostyle hall at Karnak, the beautiful setting of the Temple of Isis at Philae or standing over-awed at the feet of the colossal statues of Ramesses II at Abu Simbel first-hand. This epic tour encompasses all of these iconic sites, the long-awaited Grand Egyptian Museum and so much more. See page 20 for more details.

In the news

The tomb of Thutmose II – the first royal tomb discovered at the Valley of the Kings since Tutankhamun's in 1922 – was announced in 2025. Egypt's royal story is being rewritten in real time.

Essential Pompeii

Because of Andante's longstanding relationships, we are able to provide access and a depth of knowledge that no other operator can. We have been taking guests to Pompeii for decades, yet there is arguably no better time to visit than now – thanks to its new discoveries and recently opened sites. This tour sets out to explore that fascinating world in depth and in context, providing expert guidance with a well-thought-out itinerary which includes free afternoons for independent exploration. See page 26 for more details.

In the news

A spectacular Dionysian frieze – depicting secret mystery cult rituals – was revealed in 2025, underscoring that Pompeii still yields major discoveries. Excavations continue to surprise even the most seasoned scholars.

RelaxedLYCIA

Jewel of the Turquoise Coast

Easy ●○○

7 DAYS FROM $6,140pp

Tucked into the southwestern corner of Turkey, where the Taurus Mountains tumble down to meet the impossibly blue waters of the Mediterranean, lies ancient Lycia. TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

Explore the UNESCO World Heritage Sites of Xanthos and Letoon, ancient capital of the Lycian League and its federal sanctuary

Discover the hilltop city of Arykanda, where an exceptional ensemble of civic monuments cling to a series of steep natural terraces

Travel by boat to the partially submerged ruins of Teimussa, where Lycian sarcophagi stand half-drowned at the water's edge

Day One | Kaş

Arrive into Dalaman and meet your expert Guide Lecturer and fellow travellers at your hotel.

Day Two | Xanthos & Patara

Our first site visit of the morning is to Xanthos, a major centre for culture and commerce for the ancient Lycians, referenced in Homer's Iliad. Join us on an exceptionally beautiful journey into a part of Turkey seldom penetrated by mainstream tourism. Eastern Turkey receives a fraction of the attention lavished on the classical sites of the Aegean coast, yet its historical significance is just as important. For those with a serious interest in history, architecture and the layered complexity of human civilisation, it offers an experience that is, quite simply, without parallel.

Discover the Greek Orthodox Sumela Monastery, built into the side of a sheer cliff in a remote mountain valley

Today, we explore Trabzon, one of the most historically layered cities on the Black Sea coast, founded by Greek colonists around the 8th century BCE. From Trabzon, we climb into the Pontic Alps to visit the cliff-hugging Sumela Monastery.

Day Three | Trabzon - Erzurum

This morning, we travel inland, crossing the dramatic Zigana Pass and following the old Silk Road to Erzurum, the highest city in the country. We visit the commanding Çifte Minare Medrese, whose twin minarets of intricately worked brick have defined the city's skyline since the 13th century, and admire the glazed tilework of Yakutiye Medrese. We also see the Ulu Cami, the great Friday Mosque.

Day Four | Erzurum - Kars

We continue our journey, heading south to Kars, which takes us through some of the most remote and elemental landscapes in the country, where rivers have spent millennia carving deep gorges through the volcanic highlands.

Day Five | Kars - Ani - Doğubayazıt

This morning, we head to the medieval 'ghost' town of Ani and spend time among its extraordinary remains and admire the frescoes within the Church of St Gregory the Illuminator. In the afternoon, we continue through rugged mountains and over the flank of Mount Ararat to Doğubayazıt.

Day Six | Doğubayazıt - Van

We drive over the nearly 10,000 feet high Tendurek Pass, past frozen lava flows, and get our first tantalising glimpses of Lake Van, a startlingly blue high-altitude lake seven times larger than Lake Geneva. This afternoon, we visit the Archaeological Museum in Van.

Day Seven | Hosap, Çavuştepe & Van

This morning, we drive south into the heart of the mountains to visit the fairytale fortress of Hosap, which was built by a Kurdish chieftain in the 17th century, and then continue to Çavuştepe. Later, we explore the mighty Rock of Van.

Day Eight | Van - Akdamar - Tatvan

We depart Van for Tatvan this morning, following the beautiful southern shores of Lake Van. On the way, we make a diversion to the offshore island of Akdamar, which is reached by a short 20-minute boat ride. Later, we return to the mainland and visit Nemrut Dağı.

Day Nine | Por - Bitlis - Diyarbakır

Travelling south this morning, our first stop is at the village of Por before we continue to Bitlis, which was for centuries a significant stop on the caravan routes linking Persia and the Arab world with Anatolia. After lunch, we continue west to Diyarbakır.

Day Ten | Diyarbakır - Mardin

We begin the day with an exploration of Diyarbakır, the great city on the Tigris and the historic heart of Kurdish culture in Turkey. We see the Ulu Cami, converted from a Byzantine church in the late 11th century and the multi-arched Dicle bridge.

Day Eleven | Deir az-Zaferan & Mardin

This morning, we visit the monastery of Deir az-Zaferan. Founded in the 5th century on the site of a much older pagan sanctuary, it served for over a millennium as the seat of the Syriac Orthodox Patriarchate and retains a living monastic community to this day. We return to Mardin in the afternoon to explore the city itself, its honey-coloured stone arcades, Artukid-era mosques and madrasas and its ancient Syriac Christian churches

Day Twelve | Tor Abdin

Today, we explore the Tor Abdin, a limestone plateau southeast of Mardin that has been continuously inhabited by Christian communities for millennia. This region preserves a remarkable concentration of early churches and monasteries, whose architecture, liturgy and language (a form of Aramaic) connect the present directly to the very origins of Christianity.

Day Thirteen | Mardin - Istanbul

Depart for the airport or continue your trip at leisure.

Over six nights, we move thoughtfully through the island's extraordinary succession of civilisations, exploring what each layer reveals about the people who shaped this place and the wider ancient world they inhabited.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

Admire the fabulous collection of statuary at Rhodes Archaeological Museum

Soak up the stunning views at Lindos, stretching across the Aegean towards the Anatolian coast

Discover ancient Kameiros with its visible street plan of an entire Hellenistic and Roman city, terraced into a quiet hillside

Day One | Rhodes

Arrive into Rhodes and meet your expert Guide Lecturer and fellow travellers at your hotel.

After lunch, we visit the Palace of the Grand Masters, the administrative centre of the Order of the Knights of St John.

Day Three | Lindos, Apollona & Phountoukli

Next, we travel inland to the village of Apollona and visit its small medieval church, and after lunch, visit the 15th-century church of Saint Nikolas at Phountoukli.

Day Four | Rhodes

town has good bookshops and markets. Those drawn to the sea can find appealing beaches within easy reach or there's the option to take a ferry trip to nearby Simi.

Day Five | Kameiros & Kalavrada

We drive west and south today, passing olive groves and limestone hills to Ancient Kameiros. After lunch, we take a short drive to the Bee Museum, learning about Rhodes' long beekeeping tradition.

Day Six | Rhodes & Ialyssos

This morning, we visit the acropolis of ancient Rhodes, founded by Hippodamus of Miletus and one of the most admired cities of the Hellenistic age. Essential POMPEII

The Archaeology of the Bay of Naples

Easy ●○○

6 DAYS FROM $2,670pp

Few moments in the ancient world are as vividly documented as the eruption of Vesuvius in AD 79. We know, with a specificity that no other lost city can match, what Pompeii looked like on the day it was destroyed. This tour sets out to explore that world in depth and in context, providing expert guidance with a well-thought-out itinerary, which includes free afternoons for independent exploration.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

Admire spectacular Roman wall paintings at the Villa of Poppaea at Oplontis

Discover Herculaneum, remarkable for its intact wooden structures, second-storey houses and even carbonised food!

Spend a full day in Pompeii, exploring its streets and monuments, including newly excavated areas

View the fabulous collections of the National Archaeological Museum in Naples

Day One | Naples

Arrive into Naples and meet your expert Guide Lecturer and fellow travellers at your hotel.

Day Two | Pompeii

When Vesuvius erupted in AD79, it buried the ancient city of Pompeii beneath a cascade of pumice, ash and pyroclastic surge that ultimately reached several metres in depth, a catastrophe for its inhabitants, but an extraordinary gift to posterity. What survived was not a monument or a carefully curated showpiece, but a city preserved in extraordinary detail: streets, shops, bakeries, brothels, gardens and grand townhouses all survive, along with haunting plaster casts of those who did not escape. We devote our day to the site, orientating ourselves among its streets where we begin to understand the rhythms of a prosperous Roman city caught, quite literally, in mid-stride. No two visits to this sprawling site are ever the same, thanks to the constant discoveries being made and new houses that are regularly opening to the public.

Day Three | Naples

This morning, we visit Naples Archaeological Museum, packed with the best wall paintings and delicate artefacts from everyday life. Exquisite metalwork which would normally have been melted and recycled; marble statues which would have been broken up to make lime; wall paintings which would have been decayed or plastered over — all these would have been lost had Vesuvius not buried them all. The museum has now expanded, recently opening its western wing after a decade-long renovation project. The afternoon is free for you to explore Naples at your own pace or visit another ancient site.

Day Four | Oplontis & Stabiae

At Oplontis, we discover the sumptuous Villa of Poppaea, believed to have belonged to the second wife of the emperor Nero. Its painted rooms are among the finest examples of Roman wall painting in existence, their illusionistic architectural vistas still vivid after nearly two thousand years. In the afternoon, we move on to Stabiae on the slopes above Castellammare di Stabia, where a series of large aristocratic villas commands sweeping views across the bay, villas whose owners were almost certainly present when Vesuvius erupted and whose fate Pliny the Elder shared when he sailed across the bay on a rescue mission that proved fatal.

Day Five | Herculaneum

Herculaneum, which perfectly complements a visit to Pompeii, is our last port of call. This seaside city was buried to a significantly greater depth than Pompeii — under 23 metres of pyroclastic to be exact — perfectly preserving every-day objects as well as houses up to their rooftops. Herculaneum is a much more compact site and has fewer visitors, but it is certainly no less fascinating than Pompeii. In addition to the site, we explore the Ancient wonders renewed

Easy ●○○

5 DAYS FROM $4,340pp

Egypt has always rewarded return; right now, it positively demands it. For those visiting Egypt for the first time, the city offers an incomparable initiation into the ancient world: to look out across the Giza plateau is to encounter something that no amount of prior familiarity with images can fully prepare you for. For returning travellers, this city is equally compelling, with the newly opened Grand Egyptian Museum simply unmissable.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

Stand before the last surviving wonder of the ancient world and experience the moment that no image, however familiar, can quite prepare you for

Discover the complete treasure of Tutankhamun, displayed in its full glory for the first time at the Great Egyptian Museum

Come face to face with Egypt's greatest pharaohs, displayed with exceptional care at the National Museum of Egyptian Civilisation

Day One | Cairo

Arrive into Cairo and meet your expert Guide Lecturer and fellow travellers at your hotel.

Day Two | Saqqara - Giza

Today takes you to the very origins of monumental Egypt with a morning visit to Saqqara. At its heart stands Djoser's Step Pyramid designed, c2650 BCE by the brilliant architect and physician Imhotep. We also visit the newly renovated Imhotep Museum, which displays extraordinary finds from Saqqara. In the afternoon, we explore Giza, where we find the three great pyramids of Khufu, Khafre and Menkaure and the Great Sphinx. However many times one has seen them in images, the reality is something altogether different.

Day Three | Grand Egyptian Museum

This morning is devoted to the Grand Egyptian Museum ('the GEM'), which is situated on the plateau at Giza within sight of the pyramids themselves. Here we find the greatest collection of ancient Egyptian artefacts ever assembled under one roof. Its centrepiece is the complete treasure of Tutankhamun, including objects never before displayed publicly. The afternoon is free to spend as you wish – explore further sites in and around Cairo, remain for further discoveries at the GEM or return to the hotel to relax.

Day Four | National Museum of Egyptian Civilisation

Today we visit the National Museum of Egyptian Civilisation (NMEC), which traces the full arc of Egyptian culture. The museum's crown jewel is the Royal Mummies Hall, where 22 royal mummies (among them Ramesses II, Seti I and Hatshepsut) are displayed with exceptional dignity and scholarly care. The remainder of the afternoon is free, and the return to your Zamalek hotel offers a final chance to absorb the city at your own rhythm.

Day Five | Egyptian Museum - Cairo

On our final morning in Cairo, we pay a visit to the Egyptian Museum on Tahrir Square, the grand rose-pink building which has presided over the heart of the city since 1902. Here we find unparalleled Old Kingdom Art and collections, which include the Fayoum portraits and the Narmer Palette. Later, depart for the airport or continue your trip at leisure.

Take a boat trip to the island of Inis Mor and visit Dun Aengus

View an Irish Court Tomb at Creevykeel

Admire the collection of prehistoric artefacts at the National Museum of Dublin

Visit the Hill of Tara with over 30 visible monuments, including the Stone of Destiny

YOUR EXPERT GUIDE LECTURER

Dr Jeremy Bennett

A British archaeologist, Jeremy was awarded his PhD at Magdalene College, Cambridge.

Day One | Dublin

Arrive into Dublin and transfer to Fourknocks, home to a remarkable example of a passage tomb. Afterwards, we continue to our hotel in Dublin for one night.

Day Two | Dublin - Drogheda

We begin at the Old Library of Trinity College, Ireland's largest library and then onto the 12th-century St Patrick's Cathedral. Leaving Dublin, we head to Balriggeran for lunch. After lunch we visit the National Museum of Ireland before driving to Drogheda.

Day Three | Newgrange & Knowth

After breakfast, we visit Newgrange, a Neolithic burial mound older than Stonehenge and the Pyramids of Giza. Next is Knowth, featuring two passage graves and finally, we explore the Hill of Tara, historic seat of Ireland's High Kings, with its Iron Age enclosure and Stone of Destiny.

Day Four | Drogheda - Sligo

We start our day at the passage grave cemetery of Loughcrew, also called Slieve na Callighe or Hill of the Witch, home to some of Ireland's oldest monuments. Next, we visit Sligo at the mouth of the Garavogue River. Its name, meaning 'Shelly River' in Gaelic, highlights its history. After lunch, we explore the impressive Irish Court Tomb at Creevykeel.

Day Five | Carrowmore & Carrowkeel

Today's highlight is our visit to Carrowmore, the oldest prehistoric cemetery in Ireland. The majority of its monuments are clustered around Listoghil, a great chamber and the only tomb in the site to contain inhumations rather than cremations. After lunch, we stop to view the Drumanone dolmen before continuing to the Carrowkeel megalithic complex. Reaching this atmospheric site requires a scenic one-mile walk through beautiful countryside. Like Carrowmore, Carrowkeel is a megalithic hilltop passage tomb cemetery, locally known as 'the Pinnacles.'

Day Six | Sligo - Rathcroghan - Galway

We journey to Galway, situated at the mouth of the River Corrib at the head of Galway Bay. En route, we stop at Rathcroghan before arriving in Galway, where we visit the Galway City Museum to see its prehistoric collection.

The Archaeology of Anglesey

Druids, Romans and English Conquest

5 DAYS FROM $2,910pp

Moderate ●●○

Anglesey, or Ynys Môn as it is known in Welsh, holds a significant position in the archaeological and historical narrative of Britain. Separated from mainland Wales by the narrow Menai Strait, this tiny island off the northwest coast boasts significant concentrations of Neolithic burial chambers, Bronze Age standing stones and Iron Age hillforts. It was also at the centre of the dramatic encounter between Celtic druids and Roman legions that Tacitus so vividly recorded.

Discover Bryn Celli Ddu, an impressive Neolithic chamber tomb aligned with the sun on the longest day of the year

Visit Caernarfon Castle, one of Europe's great medieval fortresses on the banks of the River Seiont

Explore Segontium the Roman fort founded by Agricola which controlled access to Anglesey

Day One | Bangor

Arrive into Bangor and meet your expert Guide Lecturer and fellow travellers at your hotel.

Day Two | Anglesey

This morning, we drive across the Menai Bridge onto Anglesey and visit Bryn Celli Ddu. This impressive Neolithic passage grave continues to fascinate archaeologists because it is actually two monuments, one built on top of an earlier henge. Next, we have arranged access to Barclodiad y Gawres, a decorated chambered tomb. Its location in Anglesey makes it very unusual – tombs of this type are usually only found in Ireland. We continue to Ty Mawr, stopping en route to view Llyn Cerrig Bach, an area of marshland (once a natural lake) and the location of the largest Iron Age hoard discovered to date in Wales. At Ty Mawr, we see the remains of about 20 or so round stone houses, stores and workshops. After lunch, we drive to Caer Gybi and view the remains of a small Roman fort.

Day Three | Caernarfon

We visit some interesting fortifications today, starting with Dinas Dinlle Hillfort, an Iron Age prehistoric coastal fort. The constantly eroding soft cliffs have long made it a challenging site to excavate, but a monumental stone-built roundhouse was discovered here a few metres from the cliff edge. Next, we visit Segontium Roman Fort, which once formed a critical part of Roman control over the newly conquered Welsh tribes. In the afternoon, we explore magnificent Caernarfon Castle, one of the greatest buildings of the Middle Ages.

Day Four | Anglesey

We return to Anglesey this morning to visit Beaumaris Castle, the last of the royal strongholds created by Edward I. We visit Penmon Priory, founded in the 6th century by St Seiriol. The day ends at Din Lligwy, a well-preserved fortified hut group from the late Roman era.

Day Five | Bangor

Depart for the airport or continue your trip at leisure.

Please note: the order of site visits may change due to prevailing weather conditions

Early Civilisations

The first great societies

Across river valleys and fertile plains, the earliest civilisations thrived through remarkable advancements and laid the foundations of organised life – agriculture, belief systems, trade and governance. Travelling through these landscapes, you'll encounter the remains of societies that transformed how people lived, worked and understood the world around them.

On each tour in this section, walk where humanity took its first steps towards building societies, cultures and innovations that shaped the course of history. Learn about the legacies that continue to inspire us today, perhaps none more so than the Egyptians. From towering pyramids and mighty temples to lesser-known gems, they left behind such a rich cultural heritage that means no two visits here are the same. The addition of the long-awaited Grand Egyptian Museum further enriches any journey here – 20 years in the making and now the biggest museum in the world.

Elsewhere, uncover stories of our ancestors in Bulgaria, full of treasures following its golden age of archaeological discoveries, explore Thrace, a region steeped in myth and legend, or marvel at the groundbreaking site of Göbekli Tepe, which challenges our understanding of early human civilisation. Each destination offers a unique window into the ingenuity, artistry and spiritual beliefs of ancient societies: the result is an enriched understanding of humanity's shared heritage and the milestones that paved the way for our global civilisation.

“ We booked to find out more about Minoans and Myceneans following our Peloponnese Tour with Christina last autumn. We got that in spades but as usual, many other periods were covered. Christina and Miranda were brilliant - as well as all the arrangements, Miranda's botanical knowledge was very helpful. ”

Pompeii, Herculaneum & Classical Campania

Learn more about Pompeii at the recently excavated villas

8 DAYS FROM $4,430pp

Moderate ●●○

$0 SINGLE SUPPLEMENT
PLACES AVAILABLE

Nowhere in the world could give a deeper insight into Roman life than the dramatic seaside towns of Pompeii and Herculaneum. Before the eruption of Vesuvius, these were thriving, lively seaside towns – Pompeii, a trading town equipped with many bars, shops and brothels, while Herculaneum was an affluent elegant town. All this came to an abrupt halt, however, one autumnal day in AD 79 when Vesuvius, which had done little more than rumble for years, erupted with cataclysmic force. Two thousand years later, the sites of the Bay of Naples confront the modern visitor with a vivid, haunting immediacy like nothing else in the ancient world. In some cases, we even know the names, professions and personal histories of the people who owned the villas and shops we visit, with our expert guide lecturer illuminating the ordinary people of Pompeii, Herculaneum and beyond. This is an exciting time for visitors to these Vesuvian towns, as new discoveries are constantly being made and new houses constantly opened up. Lose yourself in the past, walking the ancient streets in the footsteps of gladiators, slaves, senators and citizens.

- Enjoy visits to off-the-beaten-track villas at Stabiae
- Private access to the Cave of Sejanus (Grotta di Seiano) and the adjoining Villa of Pausilypon with its dramatic coastal views
- Visit newly excavated houses in Pompeii

Day One | Naples

Arrive into Naples and meet your expert Guide Lecturer and fellow travellers at your hotel in Pompeii.

Day Two | Paestum

Our day begins with a visit to the fascinating site at Paestum, ancient Poseidonia. Long before the Romans came, this was a thriving Greek city that was part of greater Greece from the 6th century BCE. We discover glorious Greek temples here and after lunch, we visit Paestum Museum, famed for its archaic metopes and painted tombs, including the wonderful Tomb of the Diver, dating to c480 BCE.

Day Three | Pompeii

We devote a whole day to Pompeii. No other site can compare in revealing details of everyday life in a Roman town. We visit some of the most well-preserved buildings, including its amphitheatre, theatre, forum, bath houses, bars and brothels. Fountains are worn from use, wheel ruts are carved into the street and the walls are adorned with graffiti and paintings. Travelling by the best routes to avoid crowds, we also visit several houses that have only recently reopened to the public.

Day Four | Naples - Pozzuoli

Our first visit of the day is to the National Archaeological Museum in Naples. Highlights include the famous Alexander Mosaic, the Bronze Runners and the Farnese Bull, carved from a single block of marble and the largest ancient sculpture ever recovered. After lunch, we move on to Pozzuoli, where we explore the Flavian amphitheatre, one of Italy's largest Roman arenas. Later, we have arranged private access to the Cave of Sejanus, a monumental tunnel dating to the age of Augustus, which gives access to the lovely seaside villa of Pausilypon (which means 'respite from worry') in Greek), the summer house of an elite Roman, Publius Vedius Pollio.

Day Five | Stabiae

Go off the beaten track to the villas of Stabiae, an exclusive Roman resort for the very wealthy. The vast Villa San Marco, with its swimming pool and bath complex, is one of the most opulent along this coast and it remains very impressive in its scale. We also visit the Villa Arianna, with its wonderful frescoes and fabulous views over the Bay of Naples. After lunch, we visit the Archaeological Museum of Castellammare di Stabia Libero D'Orsi. There are a large number of finds on display, some never before exhibited in Italy, including frescoes, inlaid floors, stuccoes, sculptures, terracottas, tableware, objects made of iron and bronze.

Day Six | Herculaneum

This morning, we head to Herculaneum, buried to a significantly greater depth than Pompeii – under 23 metres of pyroclastic to be exact – perfectly preserving everyday objects as well as houses up to their rooftops. In addition to the site, we explore the Antiquarium, newly opened after 44 years, which houses precious articles found along Herculaneum's seafront. After lunch, we visit Boscotrecase, which in antiquity was an area full of villas and farms dedicated to the cultivation of vines, olive trees and cereals. Here we explore Villa Regina, a modest small holding, providing us with evidence of how ordinary people lived. We also visit the nearby Antiquarium of Boscotrecase, with its collections of local fauna and flora, agricultural tools and food such as carbonised loaves of bread, cosmetics and medicines.

Day Seven | Vesuvius - Oplontis

Today, we ascend to the great volcanic crater of Vesuvius. The majority of our journey is by bus, but the final part requires a walk of around 30-40 minutes, which is well worth the effort. The walk starts at Monte Somma, the crater of the AD 79 eruption, where we grasp the scale of it. After the ascent and peering into the crater being forged since the ancient eruption, we see fumaroles and the layers of previous eruptions, while walking around the perimeter of the crater affords magnificent views over the Bay of Naples. After lunch, we continue to the impressive villa at Oplontis, which boasts sumptuous frescoes, a bath complex, an enormous swimming pool and interesting slave quarters. This villa was supposedly owned by Emperor Nero.

Day Eight | Naples

Depart for the airport or continue your trip at leisure.

Classical Turkey: the Aegean Coast

Powerful city states of ancient history

11 DAYS FROM $7,850pp

The Greek and Roman cities of Turkey's Aegean coast were once some of the most powerful in the ancient world, from - if Homer is to be believed - the site of the legendary conflict between Greeks and Trojans, to the World Heritage Site of Hierapolis. The remains of these splendid cities are set in a breathtaking landscape of rugged limestone peaks, plunging valleys, olive groves, pine forests and flower-dotted meadows, with the glittering blue waters of the Aegean Sea highlighting the distance.

Explore Troy, one of archaeology's most debated and fascinating sites which is still yielding new discoveries

Admire Pergamon, the dramatic hilltop acropolis of the Attalid kings with its vertiginous Hellenistic architecture

Day Six | Izmir - Pamukkale

Our first visit of the day is to the Agora of Smyrna, located in the Mezarlikbasi neighbourhood of Izmir. We continue inland to Sardis, a city that has always acted as a centre of power. We see the finely preserved Temple of Artemis and then Pamukkale.

Day Seven | Hierapolis - Laodicea

Today, we explore ancient Hierapolis, which benefited hugely from the nearby thermal springs, with its extensive tombs and the oracular Temple of Apollo. In the afternoon, we visit Laodicea.

Albania

Land of the Eagles

9 DAYS FROM $4,740pp

Moderate ●●○

Geographically, and for 50 years culturally isolated during the post-war Stalinist regime, Albania is unlike any other country in Europe. Homeric landscapes, for the most part undisturbed by modern life, hold ruinous Classical cities which once vied in splendour with their neighbours in Greece and Italy. Greek coastal colonisation provided new stimulus to the native population, and recent excavations of their Illyrian hilltop cities such as Byllis, have revealed the successful absorption of Hellenistic architectural ideas in their planned layout.

Uncover a story of the discovery of 2,000 years of untouched archaeological heritage

Spend a full day at the World Heritage Site of Butrint

Enjoy fantastic scenery, mountains, valleys and the dramatic Albanian Riviera

Day One | Tirana

Arrive into Tirana and meet your expert Guide Lecturer and fellow travellers at your hotel.

Day Two | Tirana

We spend the morning in Albania's capital, Tirana, a microcosm of Albania's modern history. We visit the Ethen Bay Mosque and the National Historical Museum, which contains a large section on prehistory. In the afternoon, we head to Bunkart 1, intended as a nuclear shelter and now converted into a museum and art centre.

Day Three | Tirana - Apollonia - Saranda

Today we drive to Apollonia Archaeological Park, site of the colony founded by the Corinthians in 588 BCE, featuring a Byzantine monastery-turned-museum. This afternoon, we drive along the 'Mountains of Thunder' down the beautiful Ionian coast, stopping for lunch in Vlora. We arrive in Saranda early this evening.

Day Four | Butrint

Our day is spent at world-famous Butrint. The site is one of the most striking in the Mediterranean and our guide lecturer Oliver Gilkes has directed excavations here for many years. After a picnic lunch at Butrint Castle, we visit the museum before walking down to catch the ferry across the Vivari Channel. Here we explore the Venetian Triangular Fortress.

Day Five | Saranda - Gjirokastra

Today we leave the Ionian and cross the mountains to arrive in the Ottoman city of Gjirokastra, visiting the Gjirokastra Museum, the medieval Fortress and the National Museum of Arms. This afternoon, we discover the late Ottoman mansion, Zekate House.

Day Six | Gjirokastra - Byllis - Berat

We head northwards to the ruins of Byllis, including a Hellenistic-era stadium, theatre and fortifications as well as numerous later Roman churches. After lunch, we visit the excavated Byllis Cathedral before continuing onwards to Berat.

We visit Durres, Albania's chief port and the starting point of the Via Egnatia. Here we visit the 2nd-century amphitheatre, the largest in the Balkans, as well as sections of the mighty walls. After lunch, we continue to Kruja and the Skanderbeg Museum.

Day Nine | Kruja

Depart for the airport or continue your trip at leisure.

Follow in the footsteps of history as we explore the sites and cities of the Silk Road, which once ran from China to Europe, with Uzbekistan right as its heart. The steppes, deserts, mountains and blue-tiled cities all tell stories of trade and conquest, and this is a journey across the country that traces the paths of those who've passed by for thousands of years.

Day One | Tashkent

After a free morning, in the afternoon, we visit the Museum of Applied Arts of Uzbekistan. We also take a walk in Independence Square and view the Monument of Courage.

Day Two | Tashkent - Shahrukhhiyah - Tashkent

We drive to the ancient settlement of Shahrukhhiyah, the first large city of the Tashkent oases, situated on the Great Silk Road through Yaksart but now hidden beneath a verdant mound. We visit Chorsu Bazaar, the spiritual heart of Tashkent, and Hast Imam Square, which includes the Tellya Sheikh Mosque.

Day Three | Tashkent - Nukus

This morning, we fly west to Nukus, located in the Karakalpakstan Republic. On arrival, we make our way to Gyaur Kala, the 'Fortress of Infidels', a settlement established at the time of the First Persian Empire. After lunch, we continue to the medieval city of Mizdakhan, site of Uzbekistan's oldest necropolis.

Day Four | Nukus - Khiva

Our day starts at the world-renowned Savitsky Art Museum, which hosts the world's second-largest collection of Russian avant-garde art. Next, we travel to the remote ruined tepe of Chilpik Dakhma, a Zoroastrian 'Tower of Silence' used in funerary sky burial rituals. Our final stop for the day is Khiva, an important Silk Road city.

Day Five | Ayaz Kale - Toprak Kala

We begin with an excursion to the mighty fortresses of Ayaz Kala, dramatically situated on a hilltop overlooking the Kyzylkum Desert. We continue to the abandoned city of Toprak Kala, a complex built by the slave-owning Khorezm.

Day Six | Khiva

Today we step into a world of Arabian Nights, spending a whole day exploring Khiva on foot to enjoy its narrow alleys, graceful minarets and thriving markets.

Day Seven | Khiva - Bukhara

We drive through the vast Karakum Desert, a rugged plain of sand ridges and dunes connected with salt marshes and takyr. We arrive at Bukhara in the mid-afternoon, allowing time to visit the Chashma Ayub mausoleums and the Bolo Khauz Mosque.

YOUR EXPERT GUIDE LECTURER

Dr Peter Brown

Dr Peter J Brown is an archaeologist specialising in the medieval world across Europe and Eurasia. Join Peter on our March departure.

Dr Katie Campbell

Katie has worked as an archaeologist for the past decade throughout Central Asia and the Middle East. Join Katie on our September departure.

Please note: if we are delayed en route and arrive in Bukhara later than expected, we will visit these sites instead on day 10 after our visit to Paykent.

Day Eight | Bukhara

Today is dedicated to Bukhara, the great oasis city of central Asia. As part of our tour, we visit the Po-i-Kalyan religious complex, an impressive collection of sacred buildings, so transcendent that not even Genghis Khan could not bring himself to destroy it.

Day Nine | Bukhara - Poykent

We visit the site at one of Bukhara's predecessors today, the ruined city of Poykent, which lies away from civilisation in a seemingly deserted region around 60km southeast of Bukhara. We also visit the beautifully located Mausoleum of Ismail Samani.

Day Ten | Bukhara - Samarkand

Today, we follow the Silk Road route to Samarkand, an extended drive east across the scenic plains of central Uzbekistan. We visit Rabat-i Malik, an 11th-century caravanserai of epic proportions with an intricate Persian façade matching those found on palace walls at Persepolis, and Gijduvan, a small town where we have lunch and visit a pottery workshop.

Day Eleven | Samarkand

We spend the day discovering Samarkand, a city associated with so many tales of the past. Among today's many highlights is the Ulugh Beg Observatory, a 15th-century marvel and the stunning necropolis at Shah-i-Zinda, which is a series of grand palatial tombs. We also admire Registan Square and walk into the remains of the old Afrasiab that sits in a corner of the modern Samarkand, seemingly lifeless and often unnoticed by visitors.

Day Twelve | Samarkand

We begin our last full day by exploring more of central Samarkand, first visiting the restored Gur-i-Amir Mausoleum complex, where Tamerlane was buried. We continue to the enormous Bibi-Khanym Mosque, with its magnificent columns, portals and minarets – a grand site established during the reign of Tamerlane. After lunch, we return to Tashkent by high-speed train.

Day Thirteen | Samarkand - Tashkent

Depart for the airport or continue your trip at leisure.

Frequently asked questions

WILL I RECEIVE FINANCIAL PROTECTION WHEN I BOOK?

All holidays that don't include flights are protected by ABTOT www.abtot.com.

ARE YOUR TOURS SUSTAINABLE?

We work hard to ensure that our visits have a positive and respectful impact on the ancient places we go to. Our brochures and packing materials are made from recycled and sustainable sources, and we're always striving to improve on this where we can. We always buy local for treats and picnic lunches, and do our best to avoid single-use plastics on our tours where possible.

WHAT'S INCLUDED IN THE PRICE OF THE TOUR?

We include as much as possible, from all sites listed in the itinerary, tips to local staff, and breakfast, lunch and dinner (more often than not with wine at dinner). We like to think of everything - you shouldn't need much spending money other than for souvenirs, drinks at the bar and the occasional independent meal.

WHAT LEVEL OF KNOWLEDGE DO I NEED TO ENJOY A TOUR?

All you need is a passion for travel and a curiosity for the past. Our itineraries are designed to be enjoyed and are accessible for all interest levels.

DO YOU ACCEPT LATE BOOKINGS?

We always recommend booking as early as possible, as many departures do sell out however. We do understand that sometimes the spirit of adventure is too strong to ignore and we often do take late bookings. Our Specialist Travel Executives are happy to help check availability.

CAN I TAILOR MY TOUR?

Sometimes our guests want to add little extras to their tours to make their time away a bit more special. If you wish to stay for extra days before the start or after the end of your tour, just call us to discuss.

WILL THERE BE SUPPORT WHILST ON TOUR?

When you travel with us, you are looked after round the clock at all times. In the event of an emergency, your Tour Manager is on the ground and will be able to support you locally.

HOW ACTIVE ARE THE TOURS?

We have a simple 3-tier grading system in place to help you decide whether a tour is suitable for you, which is summarised on page 7 and featured on each tour page. If you would like more information about a particular itinerary, please visit our website. We also have three styles of travel to suit a range of pace; our Classic Collection, Essential Tours, and Relaxed Breaks, more information can be found on page 7.

DO I NEED TRAVEL INSURANCE?

Yes, it is a condition of booking that you must ensure you are covered for any necessary medical issues or repatriation needs, as we will not be able to cover these costs or access your personal funds. Your insurance should also cover you in the event that you need to cancel your trip. Please ensure your policy is in place at the time of booking your tour.

WHAT ARE YOUR BOOKING AND CANCELLATION CONDITIONS?

Full booking terms and conditions can be found at <https://www.andantetravels.com/booking-conditions>, and we'd encourage you to read these carefully before booking. In summary: a deposit secures your place, with the balance due no later than 14 weeks before departure. Should you need to cancel, charges apply on a sliding scale depending on how close to departure the cancellation is made — these are detailed in full in our Booking Conditions. We recommend ensuring your travel insurance covers cancellation for peace of mind.

NEW IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR TRAVEL TO EUROPE: EES & ETIAS

If you are travelling to Europe, new mandatory border checks (EES) and travel authorisation requirements (ETIAS) are likely to be in effect. Please read the information in our booking conditions carefully to understand how this may affect your journey and what pre-travel requirements you will need to make. Further details can be found at <https://travel-europe.europa.eu/pub>
